Miscellaneous News.

There is considerable excitement among whiskey dealers in Philadelphia in consequence of the new regulation of the Treasury Department, which will consolidate all the bonded whiskey in one warehouse, whereby certain politicians, it is said, will pocket about ninety thousand dollars ($90,000) per annum in storage fees.

A drought prevails in the interior of New York State. Letters from Lockport report that the citizens of that place are very much incommoded for the want of water. Weeks have elapsed since any rain fell.

The self-styled "Rev. Wm. H. Green," who has just been convicted in Litchfield, Conn., of the murder of his wife, by poison, has run a race of crime during the last few years which few men in a long life equal.

There is a lady's ball club in Coldwater, Michigan. One of the members, a Miss Howard, recently died from the effects of over-exertion in a match-game.

Lena Miller, who paid the penalty of the crime of poisoning her husband a few days since, in the town of Clearfield, Pa., has made a full confession of her guilt.

Ex-confederate admiral, Raphael Semmes, has been lecturing in Nashville on the cruise of the Alabama to very thin houses.

There appears to be considerable robbing around about Baltimore, in the county—and occasionally, a case of arson.

The river is so low at Cincinnati that the side-wheel packets are drawing off the lines and stern-wheelers taking their places.

Gen. Albion P. Howe, of the freedmen's bureau, has gone South to make sale of certain Confederate property.

Hon. J. S. Black, of Pennsylvania, will be one of the counsel of John H. Surratt when his trial comes on.

THE MARYLAND FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF BALTIMORE has this day officially appointed Messrs. JAMESON & BROS. the Agents of said Company to succeed Mr. George I. Thomas, who resigned, with the view of removing to Mobile.

Messrs. JAMESON & BROS. are authorized to take risks in Alexandria or adjacent counties, at rates which, it is hoped, will be satisfactory to the Company, and to the insured.

Insurance on Real Estate can be effected from one to five years in the Maryland. A liberal share of Southern patronage solicited.

THOMAS E. AMBLETON, President of the Office in Baltimore, no 13 1m.

A CARD.—In retiring from the Insurance Agency Business, the undersigned begs to return his thanks to his friends for the very liberal patronage extended to him, and to inform them that the Companies represented by him, together with all his business, have been transferred to Messrs. JAMESON & BROS., whom I take great pleasure in recommending as my successors, and who, I am sure, will continue the business upon the same liberal and favorable terms as heretofore.

BUCKLAND WOOLEN FACTORY.

The undersigned having become the owners of the "Buckland Mills," Prince William Co., Va., two and a half miles from Gainesville Station on the Manassas Gap Railroad, have put the same in thorough repair, and now prepared to fill all orders for BEST WOOLEN FABRICS.

By the addition of new and improved machinery they hope to manufacture goods that will compete with the best, both in the texture and finish, in the markets. They have engaged as superintendent a gentleman who has been in the woolen mills of England, and is known to be thoroughly skilled in the business. Every effort will be made to make their establishment worthy of the support and encouragement of those who desire the development of the manufacturing resources of the State, and the undersigned hope to receive a generous support in the undertaking.

The highest market price will be paid for wool, either in money or cloth.

JOHN B. HUNTON & CO., Prince Wm. Co., no 14 60m.

PAPER BAGS AND FLOUR SACKS.

I have made arrangements with one of the largest manufacturers of the above goods in the United States, by which I am prepared to furnish the same at factory prices, when any considerable quantity is wanted. Flour Sacks will be stamped with the purchaser's name, &c., without additional charge, if the amount required is sufficiently large.

I have just received a supply, and will be pleased to take orders for any others not on hand. Samples of which can be seen at my Paper and Stationery Warehouse, corner of King and Water streets.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE OF VALUABLE LAND IN FAIRFAX COUNTY.

By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court of King George county, pronounced in the suit of Queenberry's Administratrix vs. Queenberry and others, the subscribers, therein appointed Special Commissioners for that purpose, will expose to public sale, on THURSDAY, the 29th day of December, 1887, that being Court day, at King George C. H., the tract of land, in the decree and proceedings mentioned, called "THE COTTAGE."

The "Cottage" contains 724 acres. It is beautifully located in King George county, on the Potomac river, and is bounded on two sides by that creek and Williams' creek. The land on the farm is accessible to steamers and sail vessels of a large class, offering the greatest facilities for delivering grain or wood. The improvements consist of a small but comfortable Frame Dwelling House, good Barns, Stables, Corn Houses, Servant's Houses, Ice House, pump, &c. The farm is in fine condition, the land level, well adapted to the production of corn, wheat, grass, &c., and is justly considered the most desirable real estate in that portion of the county. It is well enclosed with good and substantial fencing, and the several fields also separated by good fences. There is a plenty of water, and timber in abundance for the use of the plantation. It is, altogether, a most desirable tract of land, for all agricultural purposes.

By the decree, are: One-third of the purchase-money in cash; one-third in 12 months, and the remaining third in 24 months from the day of sale, carrying interest from the day of sale, and the deferred payments to be secured, after the completion of the sale, by a lien on the land. Unless otherwise notified of a change the sale will positively be made at the time and place specified. Information in regard to the character of this estate may be obtained by letter, addressed to Wm. S. Brown, esq., Corners, King George county, or Dr. R. H. Stuart, Edge Hill, King George county, or to either of the undersigned. Any person wishing to purchase, however, had better visit the premises, and examine for himself.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE OF VALUABLE LAND IN FAIRFAX COUNTY.

By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, rendered at the November term, 1887, of said Court, in the suit of McFarland vs. Harrison's heirs, the undersigned, Commissioner, named in said decree, will, on THURSDAY, the 29th day of December, 1887, that being Court day, offer, at public sale, in front of the Court House of said county, a VALUABLE LOT OF LAND, lying near the village of Germantown, and containing about 120 ACRES. It is well set in grass, and the location makes it very desirable.

TERMS.—One-tenth of the purchase-money, or an amount sufficient to defray the cost of this suit, in cash, as a deposit, liable to be forfeited upon the purchaser's failing to complete his purchase upon confirmation by the Court; the residue in three equal payments, at six, twelve and eighteen months, with interest from the day of sale to be secured by notes of the purchaser, and a retention of the title until the last payment is made.

R. H. COCKERILLE, Comm'r. of Sale, no 10-60ts.

LAND SALE.—Pursuant to the decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, rendered at the November term, 1887, of said Court, in the suit of Burke & Co. vs. Burke's heirs, I, as Commissioner, named in said decree, shall, on MONDAY, the 16th day of December, 1887, that being Court day, sell, to the highest bidder, in front of the Court House of Fairfax county, a VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND, containing 130 ACRES. It is well set in grass, and the location makes it very desirable. It is the estate of the late James Burke, known as his homestead; lies about 2 1/2 miles south of Burke's station, on the O. & A. R. R., adjoining the lands of the late Silas Burke, &c.; is without buildings, but has an abundance of wood, hard timber and pine, and offers great inducements to the purchaser.

TERMS.—One-fourth of the purchase-money in hand, as a deposit, liable to be forfeited and the land resold at the risk of the purchaser, should he fail to complete his purchase on confirmation by the Court; the residue in three equal installments, at six, twelve and eighteen months, with interest from the day of sale, to be secured by the notes of the purchaser, and a retention of the title until the last payment is made. Conveyance and stamps at the expense of the purchaser.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE OF VALUABLE LAND IN FAIRFAX COUNTY.

By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, rendered at the November term, 1887, of said Court, in the suit of McFarland vs. Harrison's heirs, the undersigned, Commissioner, named in said decree, will, on THURSDAY, the 29th day of December, 1887, that being Court day, offer, at public sale, in front of the Court House of said county, a VALUABLE LOT OF LAND, lying near the village of Germantown, and containing about 120 ACRES. It is well set in grass, and the location makes it very desirable.

TERMS.—One-tenth of the purchase-money, or an amount sufficient to defray the cost of this suit, in cash, as a deposit, liable to be forfeited upon the purchaser's failing to complete his purchase upon confirmation by the Court; the residue in three equal payments, at six, twelve and eighteen months, with interest from the day of sale to be secured by notes of the purchaser, and a retention of the title
